

Conditions of entry (Continued):

2. Unrooted Cuttings must be free of soil, plant debris and growing media
3. The consignment must be accompanied by a Phytosanitary certificate issued within 14 days prior to dispatch under the authority the official National Plant Protection Organization of the country of export in conformity with the Agreement of the International Plant Protection Convention, and with endorsements:
 - i. On botanical names of the unrooted cuttings including varieties and hybrids.
 - ii. On the place and country of origin of the unrooted cuttings and,
 - iii. That unrooted cuttings have been treated with a fungicide and insecticide, the names and dosages of which are to be specified.
(See 9 below for other declarations required)
4. Unrooted cuttings, properly labeled with the botanical name, must be securely packaged to prevent spillage in transit.
5. At the port of entry, the consignment shall be inspected by a Plant Quarantine Officer.
6. If the consignment is found to be infested or contaminated by any dangerous pest, disease or weed, it may be subjected to treatment, to destruction or to other suitable disposal as determined by the Plant Quarantine Officer.
7. If importer is required to grow the unrooted cuttings in isolation at his premises(mentioned in his application) inside an insect-proof screen-house during the post-entry quarantine period and shall inform to the Additional Director N.P.Q.S. Canada friendship road, Katunayake, of any abnormal symptoms appearing in the unrooted cuttings during such period.
8. Within 03 weeks after the entry of unrooted cuttings into Sri Lanka and their planting (re 7 above) the importer must inform the health status of the plant to the Additional Director N.P.Q.S.
9. The phytosanitary certificate (3 above) shall also contain endorsements to the effect that:
 - i. Unrooted cuttings are free of phytophagous mites, parasitic nematodes and injurious insects (naturally or by treatment)